USER'S GUIDE TO Style

A sparkly collar plus floral print is a whole lot of look. Pretty Little Liars' Shay Mitchell shows us how to pull off an embellished top from Kate Spade New York.

Sequins with flowers sounds like an '80s prom dream. But embellishments are right here, right now—on dresses, weekend tops, even winter coats. Recent cases in point: sequined red roses at Dolce & Gabbana and this black sleeveless top with a delicate flower print and a sequined collar from Kate Spade New York. "It's perfect for a business lunch or a night out," says Shay Mitchell, the 28-year-old star of Pretty Little Liars, blogger for Amore & Vita, and coauthor of Bliss (St. Martin's Press). She dressed the sparkly top up—and down—with items from her own closet. Polyester top, $198 (katespade.com).

Jeans

"I was into the easygoing vibe of these Frame Denim boyfriend jeans. I like to mix things up, so I went masculine with the jeans and leather jacket."

Shoes

"I try to have fun with my shoes, and these Schutz heels dressed up the look."

Shoes

Jacket

"I draped a black Banana Republic blazer over my shoulders to make the shirt business-y but fun. It was a simple little addition that worked well with the color scheme."
